

Scunthorpe & North Lincolnshire Concert Society

Introducing our

2024 – 2025 season

Registered Charity No. 1012855

All our concerts are held at Outwood Academy Foxhills, Scunthorpe DN15 8LJ starting at 7.30pm
Plenty of free parking and accessible concert hall.

Please let us know if there is anything we can do to help you attend our concerts.

Tickets Adults: £18; Accompanied school-aged children and students in full time education FREE
Available through our website: scunthorpe-concert-society.co.uk or email: snlcs1949@gmail.com

Ethan Loch (piano)

11th October 2024

Ethan was a finalist in the 2022 BBC Young Musician Competition having won the Keyboard Category Final. Judges commented: "Ethan found orchestral colours on the piano like no-one else can." Blind from birth, Ethan learn to play his pieces entirely by ear. He is now a student at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland.

Xuefei Yang (guitar)

8th November 2024

We are delighted to welcome back to Scunthorpe, world-famous guitarist, Xuefei Yang. In 2022 Xuefei wowed our audience with a beautifully interpreted programme of classical Chinese music, her own compositions, together with western and South American guitar music. "Her lyrical playing, warm sound and charismatic artistry connect with audiences far beyond the guitar fraternity."

Classic FM Magazine

Bone-Afide (trombone quartet)

6th December 2024

BONE-AFIDE is an international chamber ensemble made up of some of Europe's leading young Trombonists. In 2020, the quartet became joint winners of the International Trombone Association Quartet competition.

"An ensemble to watch - with a collective sound that shimmers and playing that quite simply makes you feel good."

Robin Sheffield, General Manager, Royal Philharmonic Society

This concert is kindly supported by the Countess of Munster Musical Trust

Patrick Hemmerlé (piano)

10th January 2025

Patrick Hemmerlé is one of Europe's foremost and most enigmatic pianists. As well as championing lesser-known composers he feels a deep affinity for, he has developed a reputation as an original with something out of the ordinary to say,

"...overwhelming passion that I have only once heard from another pianist. That pianist was Annie Fischer and it has remained with me for over 30 years as I am sure the recital today will too." Christopher Axworthy

Toby Cook (viola) & Victor Lim (piano)

7th February 2025

Currently studying in Berlin, Toby regularly performs in venues across Europe and Canada. He is a holder of the 'Yehudi Menuhin Live Music Now Berlin' scholarship. He teams up for this concert with South Korean-British pianist Victor Lim, who appeared in BBC Young Musician of the Year in 2012. Described as a pianist 'with great possibilities of nuance and perfect flexibility', this duo is sure to be a winner.

Toby Cook is sponsored by the Tillett Trust as part of its DEBUT programme.

Vienna Mozart Trio (piano trio)

7th March 2025

The Vienna Mozart Trio is one of a small group of ensembles known in virtually all the important music centres, having performed in most of the renowned concert halls of Europe & Asia.

'For the second time in just over a year the Vienna Mozart-Trio gave us a performance unsurpassed for musicality, artistry, commitment and accomplishment. When they play it is as if one mind, one heart and one personality is involved, not three different performers. Perhaps they have mastered telepathic communication.' The Bangkok Post.

Fibonacci String Quartet

28th March 2025

The Fibonacci Quartet are one of Europe's leading young string quartets. They are a Resident Ensemble at the Escuela Superior de Musica Reina Sofia in Madrid and have received many awards, including First Prize in the Royal Overseas League International Chamber Music Competition.

SUPPORTING & CHAMPIONING VOLUNTARY MUSIC

Kindly supported by Making Music's Philip & Dorothy Green Young Artists scheme

Contact us: snlcs1949@gmail.com
<http://scunthorpe-concert-society.co.uk>

@snlcs1949

#ScunthorpeCS

northlincsconcerts